

- 5) He would tell the wife of whom the husband was jealous that she was to drink this solution.
  - i) If she drank it and nothing happened to her, then she was innocent.
  - ii) But if she drank it and her thigh wasted away and her stomach swelled, then the husband would know she was guilty.
- 6) The priest would then take and write that curse on a scroll and he would wash the scroll off into that clay pot and she would have to drink it.
  - i) If she were innocent, nothing would happen.
  - ii) If she were guilty, her thigh would waste away and her stomach would swell.

4. The law of the Nazarite (6)

- i. The vow of the Nazarite was a vow an Israelite could make to separate himself to the Lord for a period of time.
- ii. The vow had the following requirements:
  - a. He would abstain from eating or drinking anything from the vine
  - b. He wouldn't touch or be around any dead body.
  - c. He would let his hair grow.
- iii. When the time was over for which he had consecrated himself to the Lord, he would go to the tabernacle and offer a sin offering, burnt offering and fellowship offering.
- iv. When he offered the fellowship offering, he cut his hair and put it on the altar of burnt offering under the fellowship offering and that would end his vow.

5. Last events at Sinai (7-9)

- i. Ceremonial enactments (7-8)
  - a. Chapter 7
    - 1) We have the dedication of the tabernacle.
    - 2) When we started the book of Numbers, the census was taken on the first day of the 2nd month of the 2nd year.
    - 3) When you come to chapter 7, you are back tracking a little bit.
    - 4) What happened here happened right after the tabernacle and the altar had been anointed.
      - i) See 7:1
      - ii) When Moses finished setting up the tabernacle, he anointed it and all the furnishings.
      - iii) Moses did that when he consecrated the priests.
